Lisbon, June 4, N. S.

THE laſt Letters from Cadiz adviſe, that two Dutch Men of War, belonging to their Mediterranean Squadron, ſailed from thence about three Weeks ago, in order to join three Malteſe Men of War, which lay upon the Coaſt of Barbary, and had kept the Algerines from coming out of their Ports for ſome Time paſt. They write from St. Ubes, that the Dutch Fleet is near laden, and will put to Sea the 7th Inſtant, under the Convoy of a Man of War, which is there waiting for them. On the 28th paſt Noſſa Senhora das Ondas, a Portugueſe Man of War of 60 Guns, ſailed from hence for Oporto, having under her Convoy 17 Merchant Ships which came with the laſt Bahia and Pernambuco Fleets. On the 30th arrived here from the Bay of Lagos in Algarve, the Roſario another Portugueſe Man of War of 40 Guns, and brought with her in Tow the India Ship that went from hence in Company with the Fleet the 22d of April, and ſprung a Leak a few Days after, which obliged her to put into that Bay. Three Merchant Ships fitted out by the African Company here, together with their large Ship of 36 Guns, are ready to ſail for Coriſco; and on his Portugueſe Majeſty's Recommendation are to convoy a Ship from hence to Gran Para, having on Board the Biſhop of that Place. The Abbot de Livry is very ſoon expected at this Court with the Character of Ambaſſadour Extraordinary from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty: The Palace of the Conde de Saure is hired and fitting up for his Reception. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Durſley Galley continues ſtill in this Harbour.

Hague, June 20, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland are to aſſemble here the Beginning of next Month, in which Seſſion it is expected they will come to a Reſolution upon the Conditions of Peace propoſed by the Algerines. The King and Queen of Denmark continue at Aix la Chapelle. Upon the Repreſentations of the Weſt-India Company, the States General have ſent Orders to M. Hop their Miniſter at the Court of France, to make Inſtances for the Reſtitution of Fort Arquien on the Coaſt of Africa of which the French lately poſſeſſed themſelves. Their High Mightineſſes have cauſed the uſual Preſent to Ambaſſadours, to be delivered to the Secretary left here by the Count de Morville, in order to its being ſent to him at Paris. The King of Poland's Miniſter who has for ſome Time reſided here, is ſet out for Aix la Chapelle, to meet General Fleming there. M. Van Eſſen, who for many Years had been a Deputy from the Province of Gelderland to the Aſſembly of the States General, died here Yeſterday Morning in the 82d Year of his Age. He was one of the Council for managing the Eſtate and Revenues left by the late King William, in which Place he is ſucceeded by M. Sigendorn another Deputy of Gelderland. Collonel Du Bourgay ſet out from Utrecht the 17th Inſtant, on his Way to the Court of Pruſſia.
